

JIM DALY

Jim began his professional career in 1955 at the age of 10 with Dame Joanne Priest at The Studio Theatre, Adelaide, in Britten's "Let's Make an Opera". This was followed by roles in "Tosca" and "La Boheme" with The Elizabethan Opera Company and by regular appearances over four years in dramatic roles in "Southern Stars" on NWS-9, Adelaide. This was a live-to-air children's television show, possibly the first of its kind in Australia.

In 1964, Jim qualified as a teacher and went on to gain a BA and Masters in educational administration. He completed a Master of Applied Linguistics (USQ) in 2012 and has begun a PhD by practice-research in the Theatre and Performance Department at Monash University

During his teaching career, Jim produced and directed students in many productions. As an actor, he worked with The Adelaide Repertory Company, La Mama (with Bruno Knez, director) and The Stage Company in Adelaide. In 1984, Jim left full-time teaching to return to professional acting. He founded a theatre company, MOP, which produced major plays and pub shows from 1979 to 1983. He moved with his family to Melbourne in 1986 and has subsequently worked in theatre, film and television portraying a wide range of characters.
